WHITE HOUSE UNJUST FIRINGS/Cloture (Second Attempt)

SUBJECT: Reimbursement of Former White House Travel Office Employees . . . H.R. 2937. Dole motion to close debate.

ACTION: CLOTURE MOTION REJECTED, 53-45

SYNOPSIS: As introduced, H.R. 2937, a bill to reimburse former White House travel office employees who were wrongfully terminated by the Clinton Administration, will direct the Secretary of the Treasury to reimburse the seven employees who were wrongfully terminated for the legal fees they incurred with respect to their termination. The Congressional Budget Office estimates the total cost of this bill to be $500,000.

On May 6, 1996, Senator Dole sent to the desk, for himself and others, a motion to close debate on the bill.

NOTE: A three-fifths majority vote is required to close debate. This vote was the second attempt to invoke cloture (see vote No. 109). Pending at the time of the vote were a Dole substitute amendment, a Dole first-degree substitute amendment to the Dole amendment, a Dole second-degree substitute amendment to the Dole first-degree amendment, a motion to commit the bill to the Judiciary Committee with instructions to report back forthwith, a Dole substitute amendment to the instructions to the motion to commit, and a Dole perfecting amendment to the Dole amendment to the motion to commit. The pending amendments made minor changes to the effective date of the bill, and filled all parliamentary openings for offering amendments.

For debate, see vote No. 109.
